

“US-EU Research Collaboration in Aeronautics: Paving the way for new opportunities”

Thursday February 6th, 2020 9:15– 17:15
2175 K Street NW. Washington, D.C. 20037

AGENDA
9:00	Arrival of participants
9:15	Welcome Mary Kavanagh (European Union Delegation)
9:25	Opening remarks, agenda presentation, round tables Kaouthar Benameur (ONERA) ICARE US platform leader
9:35	Europe, Open to the World to Transform Aviation: examples and opportunities Pablo Perez-Illana (European Commission) Policy Officer
10:00	United States of America, FAA’s ASCENT and CLEEN Programs – overview briefing Jim Hileman (Federal Aviation Administration), Chief S&T Adv. for Environment and Energy
10:15	Short view on ICARE and ACARE INCO Guy Gallic (Erdyn) ICARE Coordinator
10:25	Research Topics identification for Research Collaboration between EU and USA (from where we come, the method, and today’s expectations) Kaouthar Benameur (ONERA)
10:40	Networking coffee break
11:00	Round tables Session 1, topics identification for cooperation and feedback on technical descriptions in the following fields: - Safety and security , Emmanuel Isambert (EASA), - Engineering Methodologies, technology alignment and Maintenance , Massimo Scalvenzi (Leonardo) and Florian Raddatz (DLR)
13:00	Networking lunch
14:30	Round tables Session 2, topics identification for cooperation and feedback on technical descriptions in the following fields: - Materials , Timothy Davies (Rolls-Royce) and Kimberly Caldwell (Spirit AeroSystems) - Environment & energy , Massimo Cavaliere (CIRA) - Regulation & certification , Pascal Piot (Dassault Aviation)
16:10	Networking coffee break/round table feedback consolidation
16:45	Conclusions, next steps and thanks
17:15	End of the workshop